Captain Ellis says: "He took an active part in the local organizations of the many different stock companys. * * * * * In this respect the life of Mr. Eyerman is a plain proof that an extended business may be diligently and successfully conducted, without neglecting the higher duties of life. In his whole life, he has strictly adhered to what he believed to be duty, and in every position he has relied for success upon principle and persevering industry. * * * * * In official position, he has manifested the same regard for the interest of others as for his own."

John Eyerman

Captain Eyerman was one of the incorporators of the Warren Foundry and Machine Co. 1856, of the Lehigh Water Co. 1860, the Delaware Rolling Mills Co. 1866, the North Penn Iron Co. In 1868 he was elected President of the Easton Delaware Bridge Co. and of the Easton Water Co., both of which offices he continued to hold until his death in 1883. At various times he was director of the Easton National Bank, the North Penn Iron Co., the Phillipsburg Stove Works Co. He was treasurer and member of the Vestry of Christ and St. Paul's Churches. He served at different times as Notary Public, member of the School Board and of the Town Council, and very frequently as Executor, Administrator and Trustee of Estates. He was largely interested in the many iron industries of the Lehigh Valley.

"For many years he took an active interest in military affairs. * * * * * He was a member of the 'Citizens' Volunteers' for six years and in 1851 was appointed Captain of the 'National Guards.' During the late Rebellion he aided the Government in every possible way in the formation of volunteer companys and in visiting and contributing to the relief of the soldiers' families."

An old broadside in my possession, "Fourth of July" Anniversary Celebration, 75th Year of Our Independence, announces that, The National Guards commanded by Capt. Eyerman will parade on that day and join the party on "The Island" in the afternoon.

Colonel Kachlein in 1762 erected a grist and saw mill near Easton. (Hist. North. Co. Fritts, p. 150). This mill, now known as the Butz mill, is still standing near the Bushkill st. station E. & N. R. R. Although Col. Kachlein owned considerable land in Easton and in Forks tsp. as early as 1755, the deeds thereto were never recorded. The earliest recorded deeds are for 1500 acres (2 Jan. 1770) (B. Kachlein's regiment in the brigade of Lord Stirling and with cavalry of Colonel Stewart, composed of Pennsylvanians and Marylanders, held back the tide of battle with heroic endurance and bravery on Long Island and secured the safe retreat of Washington and his army."

Extracts from letters of Robert L. Hooper, Jr., D. C. of Prisoners, to E. Boudinot, Esq., Commissary General of Prisoners:

"Col. Peter Kachlein who was taken on Long Island was a Lieut. Colonel in the Flying Camps—he is a wealthy German, has great influence over the Germans and would be very useful to us if he was exchanged—He is now on Parole and at his home near this Town—You'll do essential Service if you can get this man exchanged—Won't Dikens do for him—

May 23, 1778.

I have been intimate with Colo: Kachlein for many years and as he is my near Neighbor have had frequent Opportunities of conversing with him since he returned home on parole—he has at several times expressed to me an earnest desire to be at liberty to exert himself in support of our cause—he has in confidence often mentioned to me the cruel treatment he and our officers recd. when Prisoners—He was without exception before he left this county one of the most firm and spirited Germans in this County in support of our Cause and has since he returned twice solicited me to endeavor to get him exchanged & I think it my duty in justice to Colo: Kachlein's character to say that I know he is a man of consequence and influence in this County and that to the best of my knowledge he has used it to serve our Cause before he was taken prisoner and since, to me he appeared warmly attached to it.

HELLER

CHRISTOPHER HELLER, with his son, Johan Simon, embarked at Rotterdam in the ship "Winter Galley," Edward Paynter, master, and arrived at Philadelphia 5 Sept. 1738 (2d Pa. Arch. XVII, p. 148). In all probability Christopher was accompanied by his younger sons, although we have no actual proof of the same, as these brothers of Johan Simon were under the age of sixteen years and were not required to register upon arrival.

Christopher Heller received his patent for land in Lower Saucon tsp. 8 Sept. 1742, and settled, with his children, at Hellertown.

Simon Heller received his land patent in Oct. 1746. On 1st Feb. 1763 Richard Peters conveyed to Simon 151 acres of land in Lower Saucon (A. I. 338). In 1756 Captain

Craig was ordered to escort Simon Heller's wagons to Fort Allen. (Frontier Forts, Vol. I, and Mss. Records, 1727-58, p. 201.) In 1766, he was appointed an "Inspector Freeholder" for the County. (Mss. Records 1758-67, p. 247.)

His name and that of his father (?), Christopher, appear in the visitors' book of the old "Crown Inn" at South Bethlehem. (Skizzen aus dem Lecha-Thale, p. 186.)

He was frequently appointed to view and lay out roads in different parts of the County; in 1760 (with Peter Bogert) to lay out a road in Salisbury; in 1764 to lay out a road from Chestnut Hill to Nazareth.

He and his wife and some of his children are buried in the Plainfield yard. Other children are buried in Hamilton (Monroe) and Upper Mt. Bethel; his grandson Jacob and most of his descendants in the Easton cemetery.

APPEL

JOHN PETER APPEL, with his three children, John, Philip and a daughter, came to America in the year 1733. (Ship "Pink Mary," 29 Sept. 2d Pa. Arch. XVII, p. 100.) They settled in Lower Saucon tsp., the father having purchased 250 acres of land near Appel's Church and two large tracts in Springfield tsp.

- 1: JOHN PETER APPEL, (d. 1664?) had 2 Philip, d. s. p., 2 a daughter, d. s. p., and 2 John (331).

John Peter Appel, on 28 July 1738, received a patent for 300 acres of land in Upper Saucon tsp. In 1743 upon petition of John Appel and others Saucon was erected into a separate township. (History Lehigh County, 424-27.)

As early as 1740 we find John Peter Appel owning several large tracts of land in Lower Saucon and Springfield tps. Most of this original land is still in the hands of the family. In 1760 he purchased 200 acres 66 pchs. from Joseph Samuel, which in 1764 he conveyed to his son John. (Votes of Assembly, 1765, p. 420.)

WAGENER

ASPER WAGENER, of Ober-Langneundorf, was in 1719 cited several times to appear in the instruction given by the Jesuits. In 1727 he was married by the priest to Anna, and promised to bring up his children in the Catholic faith. He passed through the trials of the Jesuit mission, probably had his two children, Christopher and Anna Rosina, baptized into the Catholic faith, and fled to Goerlitz in the Winter or Spring of 1736, and later to Berthelsdorf. Before the migration of 1737 he was killed, the daughter Anna Rosina died, and DAVID (379) was born. The widow-mother with her two sons, Christopher and David, fled to America, arriving at Philadelphia in the ship St. Andrew Galley, John Stedman master, 26 Sept. 1737.

The Wagener families mentioned in connection with the Jesuit mission lived in Harpersdorf and Langneundorf and were firm, resolute and fearless Schwenkfelders. Their given names were Casper, Friedrich, Heinrich, David, Regina, Melchior, George. (Prof. H. W. Kriebel.)

Anna Wagener and her two sons settled in Worcester tsp., Montgomery Co.

EDICT.

Concerning the re-establishment of the so called Schwenckfeldians in Silesia and other Provinces of his Royal Majesty; De dato Selowitz, the 8th March 1742.

We, Frederick, by the Grace of God, King of Prussia, Margrave of Brandenburg, Arch-Chamberlain and Elector of the Holy Roman Empire, &c. &c.

Be it known to all to whom these presents may come, Whereas we do hold nothing to be more contrary to Nature, Reason and the Principles of the Christian Religion, as the forcing of the subjects' consciences and to persecute them about any erroneous doctrines which do not concern the fundamental principles of the Christian Religion; so we have most graciously resolved that the so called Schwenckfeldians who were exiled through an imprudent zeal for Religion, to the irreparable damage of commerce and the country, be recalled into our Sovereign Duchy of Nether Silesia. We have, therefore, thought fit by these presents to assure all those who profess the said doctrine, upon our Royal word, that they shall and may safely return not only into our Sovereign Duchy of the Nether-Silesia but also into all our provinces, peaceably to live and trade there; since, we not only do receive them into our special protection, but also will give them all necessary supplies for the promotion of their commerce. And all those who several years ago, were deprived of their habitations and estates in our Country of Silesia in case those estates are not paid for by the new possessors, shall be reinstated without any compensation. Such as will settle in our villages shall have farms assigned them, and care shall be taken to provide them employment—and those who choose to live in towns, shall besides several ordinary Free years, have places assigned them gratis, for the building of their houses, for which purpose they need only apply to our Military and (Domainen) Chambers.

We do therefore command our superior Colleges of Justice and Finance as also all mediate Princes, Lords, Magistrates, &c. carefully to observe the same. In witness whereof we have signed this present Edict with our own hand, and caused our Royal Seal to be affixed.

Done at Selowitz, March 8th, 1742.

FREDERICK of Coccey,
Count of Munchan (Seal)

From a copy of Melchoir Wagener's translation, sent to the author by Ethan Allen Weaver, Esq., of Philadelphia. The original transcript was at one time in the possession of Daniel Wagener (28). This edict was issued several years after the emigration of the Schwenckfelders, but notwithstanding the promises of aid and protection not one of the emigrés returned.

It is a noteworthy fact that when the Amsterdam house, which generously furnished the passage of these emigrés, became financially embarrassed in 1790, the Schwenckfeldians in Pennsylvania, in remembrance of past kindness, advanced to the house for its relief the sum of £700.

Incendiaries.

REWARD!!!

The above reward will be given for the discovery and conviction of the Incendiary or Incendiaries, who maliciously set fire on Saturday night last about 12 o'clock to three Boats lying on the Lehigh, two belonging to Daniel Wagener & Sons and one to John Herster & Co.

The three boats were drawn up close together, (one of which was loaded with dry slabs) along side of Daniel Wagener's partly frame Store-house, apparently with a view to destroy the said Store-house.

George Barnet,

They settled in Germantown, "towards Plymouth," on a tract of land which Hans Peter had purchased from Dirk Sipman before leaving Crefeld. Hans Peter brought with him a German Bible published at Heidelberg in 1568. HERSTER

ANDREW HERSTER was born in the year 1726. At the age of twenty-three he embarked at Rotterdam on the ship "Speedwell," Capt. James Craig, and qualified at Philadelphia 25 Sept. 1749. (2d Pa. Arch. XVII, p. 294.) He settled at Long or Falkner Swamp, near Pottstown. In 1766, ten years after his marriage, he removed to Easton with his family.

1. () ANDREW HERSTER, b. 1726, died on the British prison ship "Jersey" 25 Dec. 1776; m. 16 Dec. 1756 Anna Maria Marsteller (see Marsteller, 357), b. 23 Aug. 1736, d. 25 Sept. 1830. Issue: John (129), Daniel (130), Mary (131).

In the records of the Augustus (Trappe) Lutheran Church* in Providence tsp., Montgomery, occurs the following:

"Andreas Herster married 16 Dec. 1756, at John Koplin's house, Anna Maria, daughter of Peter Marstaller."

In 1760 his name appears on Pastor Muhlenberg's subscription list for £1, 10 sh. yearly from 27 Nov. 1760.

On the ninth day of July 1776 Andrew Herster was appointed second sergeant in Capt. John Arndt's First Battalion of Associators, a part of the Flying Camp of ten thousand men. (2d Pa. Arch. XIV, p. 558, and Rosengarten's "The German Soldier," p. 154.) It appears that he took the place of his son John, who had previously enlisted.

* The oldest Lutheran Church in Pennsylvania.

In the company's first engagement at the Battle of Long Island, 27 Aug. 1776, he was taken prisoner and confined in the British prison ship "Jersey" (2d Pa. Arch. XIV, p. 561), where he died 25 Dec. 1776.

His name appears on the monument in Trinity Church Yard, which was erected to the memory of those who died on the prison ship.

The following is taken from the Register of St. John's Church, Easton:

"1830, Maria (Herster) of the family of Peter Marsteller, born Aug. 26, 1736, baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran Church, from which time a communicant at our Table. She entered into matrimony about 73 years ago with Andrew Herster. They were blest with 3 children, 2 sons and a daughter, the latter which is sometime since dead. Her infirmities, caused by extreme old age, increased until it pleased God to remove her from us, viz: about 8 o'clock in the evening of the 14th September, age 94 yrs. 22 da. It is remarkable circumstance, worthy the notice of this congregation, that she lived to see 18 grandchildren, 92 great-grandchildren and 9 great-great-grandchildren.

2. (129) JOHN HERSTER, b. at Long Swamp 16 Oct. 1758, d. at Easton 25 Feb. 1856; m. Margaret Shnyder, b. 1762, d. 11 Jan. 1811. Issue: Catharine (132), Elizabeth (133), George (134), Mary (135), Joseph (136), John (137).

In Fritt's History of Northampton (1877, p. 268) John Herster's name appears as a member of the Committee of Safety, but I have not been able to find his name in the official lists, and as he was but 18 years of age at the time it is hardly probable that he figured in a body of men supposedly of mature age.

"To his energy and enterprise the citizens were indebted for the erection of several of the flouring mills."

The old stone mill at the north end of the Third Street Bushkill bridge was the first mill built by John Herster in the year 1789. The deed to this property is in the possession of Messrs. Mann & Allshouse.

The old mill at Williams's, North Thirteenth Street, the distillery half mile west, and the distillery above Kepler's, were built by John Herster.

John Herster took the oath of allegiance (No. 324) 13 May 1778. In 1786 he was Asst. Assessor for Easton. 1787-89, one of the Asst. Freeholders of Easton. From 1795 to 1801 he was Treasurer of the County, and during this period was one of the Burgesses of Easton.

John Herster

He was one of the incorporators of the Easton and Wilkes-Barre Turnpike Co. in 1803, of the Easton Water Co. 1817, of the Lehigh Chain Bridge 1811, and of the Easton Delaware Bridge Co.

References to John Herster in Mss. Rec. Penn. Hist. Soc. are Vol. 1767-78, p. 251; Vol. 1778-97, pp. 113-61-63-243-91; Vol. 1797-1851, pp. 29-161-99.

John Herster was appointed Ensign in the 2d Batt. of Northampton Militia, vide letter of Co. Lieut. Robt. Lewers, to Timothy Matlack, Secy., to Supreme Executive Council 1 May 1782. "John Herster Ensign in the room of Abraham Berlin appointed Lieutenant."

(He was also in professional charge of the 400 passengers.) In 1818 he removed to Hellertown, where he married Elizabeth Appel. After the death of his wife he visited Europe, and upon his return settled at Easton, where he died in 1887, "probably the oldest practitioner in the world."

BUTZ

JACOB BUTZ, the grandfather of Michael (573), is, according to tradition and other more reliable sources, descended from Otto Butz, A.D. 473. The Vienna Book of Heraldry calls the original ancestor "Butrus," who was taken to Germany as a prisoner of war in A.D. 160.

1. JACOB BUTZ had Jacob (574), Henry, Christian, Peter, George, Abraham, Catharine, Charlotte, Elisabeth, Rachael, Mary and Michael.
2. (574) JACOB BUTZ, the emigrant ancestor, had Michael (573), and perhaps others. He came to America before the emigration of 1727.

AMERICAN GENEALOGY.

3. (573) MICHAEL BUTZ was born in Springfield tsp., Bucks Co., and died in Forks tsp. in July, 1779; m. Elizabeth Weaver, b. 11 July 1730, d. 6 Sept. 1795. Issue: CHRISTIAN (205), Adam (206), Mary (207), Peter (208), George (209), Michael (210), Cecilia (211), Abraham (212), Henry (213), Jacob (214), Charlotta (215), Elizabeth (216), Catharine (217), Margaret (218).

About the year 1763 Michael Butz removed to Forks tsp., near Easton, where he settled on a farm of 200 acres, which he had previously purchased from Paul Abel (1730-1763). On the 13th of October he joined Captain Jacob Arndt's Colonial company. (Condit's History of Easton, p. 197; Fritts' History of Northampton, 1877, p. 53.) The original roll of this company is in the possession of B. M. Youells. He took the oath of allegiance on the 15th Dec. 1777 (No. 188). (Pa. Hist. Soc. Mss. Records, 1767-78, p. 251.)

4. (205) CHRISTIAN BUTZ, b. 18 Nov. 1756, d. 10 Oct. 1821; m. Mary Wagener (25), b. 18 Jan. 1760, d. 18 Jan. 1833. Issue: Susanna (32), Jacob (33), David (34), Mary (35), Michael (36), Daniel (37), Elizabeth (38).

He took the oath of allegiance 30 Dec. 1777 (No. 195). (Pa. Hist. Soc. Mss. Rec. 1767-1778, p. 251.) In 1796 he was Assessor for Forks. In 1801 County Commissioner, and from 1811-1813 County Treasurer. The old Butz mill, built by Col. Kachlein in 1762, was purchased by Christian Butz from Andrew Kachlein.
